Bo Bice

October 17, Saturday

A Chandler Center for the Arts "ON TOUR" Production

Since we were first introduced to Bo Bice on American Idol Season 4, he has not slowed down. The songs on Bo's new album, See The Light are meant to be played live, in the most straightforward manner possible. "I don't need a laser show," Bo says. "I don't need a bunch of pyro to blow up in front of you to impress you. That's not the show. The show is the music and being entertained for an hour and a half. The album and the show have the same concept...not over-produced, just raw, Southern rock and getting back to basics.

Show Date/Time: Saturday, October 17, 2009 @ 8:00pm

Individual Ticket Price: $28, $32 and $36

Of Mice and Men

October 21, Wednesday

The Masterpiece by Nobel Prize Winning Author John Steinbeck

A touring production of Barter Theatre, Abingdon, VA

This captivating tale chronicles the powerful friendship of two migrant ranch workers during the Great Depression as they toil to make their dreams a reality. As all too often happens, "the best laid schemes o'mice and men" go awry in this timeless American masterpiece. "Of Mice and Men delves into themes that are as much a part of human experience today as they were when Steinbeck wrote about them more than seventy years ago – the American Dream, friendship, duty, obligation, loss – and his characters come to life in a raw, earthy way that speaks to each of us on a personal level. Not to be missed..." Jim Quesenberry, Washington County News
